THE PAPAL MASS - DUBLIN'S PHOENIX PARK & ON SCREEN IN OUR PARISH CHURCH!

The World Meeting of Families 2018 will conclude, next Sunday, with the celebration of Mass, in the Phoenix Park, led by Pope Francis.

The Papal Mass will be broadcast on a big screen in our church on next Sunday, 26th Aug 2018. For those not attending the Mass in the Phoenix Park, you are very welcome to come to the church. However, we would appreciate if you could let us know, in the parish office, if you wish to attend. It will start at 1:30pm; the Pope is due to arrive in the Phoenix Park at 2:30pm, with Mass scheduled to start at 3pm. We would suggest that you bring a cushion - as it may be a long time sitting in the pews!

This week:

Mon. 20th: St Bernard

Tues. 21st: St. Pius X

Weds. 22nd: The Queenship of Mary

Thurs. 23rd: St. Rose of Lima & St. Eugene (Eoghan)

Fri. 24th: St. Bartholomew, Apostle

Sat. 25th: St. Louis, King of France

Join us for a Peace Pilgrimage & Healing Service in Dublin this week. On August 23, Vocations Ireland will celebrate the World Meeting of Families by processing through Dublin, spreading a message of peace and healing. The event will begin with Taize Mass at 5.30pm, in Clarendon St. Church, celebrated by Fr Peter McVerry. From there it goes along the Liffey, stopping off at the Augustinians, Franciscans and Blessed Sacrament Fathers. The evening will end in Sean McDermott Street with tea & coffee, after a healing service and talk by Sr. Stan. All our welcome to what will surely be a meaningful evening.

Please bring a lantern to carry with you if you have one - there will also be a limited supply available for €5 each.

Church Gate Collections:

Today: St. Vincent de Paul Society

Next Sunday: Friedreich's Ataxia Society

Please pray for the happy repose of the souls of: Patrick Collins, John (Sean) Lang, Norrie McEvoy and Kevin O'Connor. May they rest forever in the peace of the risen Lord.
