MASS INTENTIONS

A belated BIG Thank You to all who supported and baked for our 'Christmas Coffee and Home Baked Treats' back in December. A special mention to the parents of the children participating in the Do This In Memory programme for all their baking. We raised €164 for the 'Children Helping Children' charity. Jackie Pallas from the charity has sent her thanks to the parish for the money which will go towards girls' education.

Family Mass Group

Thank you for including us in the lovely ecumenical service last week for Church Unity week. The ceremony itself was uplifting and the hospitality very much appreciated. Please God we will have more opportunities to 'get together' in the future.

Feastdays This Week

Thursday 10th February - St. Scholastica

Friday 11th February - World Day of the Sick

Questions people ask

Q. Wouldn't it be better if the main religions reached a common code of ideals and dropped the doctrines which divide them?

A. I would like to see the promotion of our shared ideals but I certainly would not favour settling for the lowest common denominator of belief. This would mean dropping many of the revealed truths such as the divinity of Jesus Christ, his unique position as saviour, his resurrection or the privilege of the Eucharist. Dialogue with other religions cannot mean any diminution of belief and I'm sure that the members of other religions think the same way
