The World Day of Prayer for Vocations 2018 takes place this weekend 21st/22nd April. The Diocesan collection for vocations to the priesthood will be held at Masses this weekend throughout the Dublin Diocese and will replace the SHARE collection.

Vocations Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to promote and pray for vocations in our Church. It is vitally important to support each response to the call of vocation and to make sure that each kind of vocation is encouraged as a viable and worthwhile option for people today. At present the Archdiocese of Dublin has five seminarians studying for the priesthood in the Irish College Rome. Last year the Diocese ordained two new priests in the Pro-Cathedral on 14th November, the Feast of St Laurence O'Toole.
